ASSESSMENT TASK
Subject: ENGLISH	Task Number: 1
Year / Class: YEAR 10 LS Course	Task Title: BE HEARD
Faculty: ENGLISH	Weighting: 25%
Class Teachers: ALL	Due Date: MONDAY, WEEK 8 - 16/03/20

TASK INSTRUCTIONS & REQUIREMENTS:

Choose a character from a novel OR a film that shows the idea of experience. This cannot be a text that you have studied in class. Explain how the character moves from being innocent to experienced in a presentation to your class.

You must digitally submit a transcript of your presentation to the nominated Google Classroom in class on the due date. You will need a printed copy of your transcript to give to your teacher on the first lesson of class in week 8. You will give your presentation during class when randomly called upon. Failure to submit by the due date will result in a score of 0 and an N-Award.

Your presentation

- should have a visual component. This may be still shots from a film but CANNOT include any more than one minute of a film trailer or extract
- should demonstrate your speaking skills
- should be 3 minutes long.
- should show your understanding of the important things that a character experiences to move from innocence to this final stage
- must be all your own work

Presentation options include:

- PowerPoint or Google slides and a live or pre-recorded verbal presentation.
- A Powtoon (or other form of digital storytelling) including a voice-over or live verbal presentation.
- A live, verbal presentation with accompanying visual aids such as a YouTube clip, trailer, visual representations of characters and ideas (digital or in the form of posters), etc.
